

Decontamination and infection prevention

BHTA
British Healthcare
Trades
Association

Tuesday 4th February 2020

BHTA · 2-4 Meadow Close · Ise Valley Industrial Estate Wellingborough
Northamptonshire · NN8 4BH

10:00-10:15

Welcome from the BHTA
Decontamination and Infection
Prevention Section Chair

Haydn Pugh

What's new in the Medical Device Regulation (MDR) and what is its relationship to Decontamination?

Jane Weller

10:15-11:15

Four Steps to Clean Hospitals

Stephanie Dancer, Consultant Microbiologist
NHS Scotland, Lanarkshire

11:15-12:00

Who are European Tissue Symposium and how can they support you?

Diana Heelis, Chair of the ETS product Stewardship Committee
Fanis Papakostas, Chairman
European Tissue Symposium (ETS)

12:00-12:05

Comfort Break

12:05-13:00

The background and evidence about infection risks associated with different hand drying methods.

Professor Mark Wilcox, Consultant, Head of Microbiology Research and Development & Infection Lead of Leeds NIHR Diagnostic Technologies Medical Technologies and In Vitro Diagnostic Co-operative at Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

13:00-13:05

Morning summary

Haydn Pugh, Section Chair

13:05-13:50

Lunch and networking

13:50-14:50

Decontamination in the community setting and Protein Residue Removal Research Project – Cardiff and Vale

Mark Campbell, Decontamination Service Manager,
NHS Wales

14:50

Summary of the day

Haydn Pugh, Section Chair

15:00

Close of Day

www.bhta.com

Better health, better care, better value